FOUR-SPEED PORTABLE RECORD PLAYER MODEL F-282

Model F-282

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Model F-282 is a four speed automatic portable record player, incorporating a three tube amplifier and a four inch speaker.

The Model F-282 is similar to the Model F-180 Portable Record Changer with a slight difference in cabinet design, and including new cabinet colours.

For electrical and mechanical specifications, amplifier layout, schematic and replacement parts, please refer to the Model F-180 Portable Record Changer service note, Issue 1956 No. 21.

The part listed below includes the cabinet part which is not common to the Model F-180:

- * S-22114 Cabinet — Two tone grey portable cabinet.
- * S-22080 Instruction Booklet
- S-22276 Grille Cloth
- S-22325 Carrying handle, grey leather
- S-22558 Carrying handle, green leather

The Model F-282A uses a Collaro Model RC457 Record Changer, and consequently the following parts are different from those used in the Model F-282.

- S-22394 Motor board, grey
- S-22396 Speed selector knob, black
